

A REVIEW OF BIDEN'S ADMINISTRATION FOREIGN POLICY ON BELARUS

Today we close about one month and a half since the Bidenists came to power in the Fake States of America. What did the Bidenists do in their first month in power? Which foreign policies did the imperialist Americans lead by the Bidenists follow? Which ones they stopped (if any) or reimplemented after the previous administration stopped them?

communication

If we were to review every single policy in regard to every country in the world, this review would not be an article, but a whole book volume. Thus, we will review their policy in one of most intense fronts of the Anti-Imperialist struggle today in the world, Belarus.

The Bidenists, even before they came in power made it obvious that once and if they get in power they will start a more immediate and direct offensive against the Belarusian people, going even to the point of attacking Trump for not being Imperialist enough! [1]

Therefore, it is not something we did not anticipate, but it is worth recording the obvious for the few who think that the Bidenists will be more 'easy' to handle and that the Democratic Party is the 'best of two worst' for the world and for the Anti-Imperialist struggle.

This is what probably happened in the White House in a beautiful morning in February 5. Joe Biden, like the senile old fool he is, he probably forgets most things - and lets hope for his poor housemaid's sake that he did not forget how to go to the bathroom to do his need - and thus, this beautiful, nice morning, while the birds were singing and the sun was shining, some 'officials' (probably a combination of white and a black men and women, some half-half between New Afrikan and New Euro-white women and men - the true pillar of the 'American' Nation! -, and some members of what the people calls 'The LGBTQ+ community' and, Elohim forbids, we wont forget the Zionists!) came in the Oval office while the poor housemaids were feeding by the mouth the senile old fool, because he was probably in a catatonic state - the age and stress over the years you see. It is not easy, by the lord, to command imperialism through the years! It seems we need to count Biden as a mental victim of the evil Hominidae - since he had just woken up, and his brain needs some hours to start working properly. The housemaids stopped feeding Mr. Biden, and seeing the officials, and in the officials seeing his faithful duty, his brain probably triggered some reactions, and thus, the President of Global Fascism was woken up and ready for action.

"Hello my dear Children, pillars of our nation" the Senile Old Fool (SOF) said, in a broken, elderly voice. "What can i do for our project?". The officials started briefing SOF of the situation on their domains and the situation regarding the Hominidae. They mentioned to him, that before he got elected, he promised the ones with the American blessing help in a country named Belarus, a country ravaged because the Hominidae had finally risen up, with humanitarian aid. They reminded him that the previous administrator, Donald Trump took back [2] some support the America is Great because America is Great gave to these upholders of the banner of humanity in Belarus, and that he attacked Trump on this. Thus, it was time for him to get to work.

Biden, thinking a little what they were saying, started remembering some stuff about the issue and ordered this team of officials to 'Do their outmost for our Humanitarian Cause!'. After that, his brain functionality went off (too much working in a short period of time!) and the officials knew what to do. The very same day, some of the main chief representatives of global Fascism, Ned Price, the 'Socialist' Josep Borrell and Oliver Varhelyi, issued the following statements:

Now moving on to Belarus. The United States welcomes the opportunity to recognize a Day of Solidarity with the people of Belarus this Sunday, February 7th. This coming week will mark six months of peaceful protest following the fraudulent election last August. We continue to be amazed by the exceptional strength, resilience, and courage of the Belarusian people. In the face of unyielding repression, they continue to demand freedom and democracy. The world has been inspired by the people of Belarus, especially Belarusian women, peacefully demonstrating for the right to have a voice in Belarus' future. We support a peaceful and inclusive dialogue that bolsters an independent, sovereign Belarus with a government that preserves its people's fundamental rights. We will continue to stand in solidarity with the people of Belarus and those around the world who face tremendous brutality as they exercise their democratic freedoms. [3]

This from the Americans.

The European Union continues to stand firmly with the people of Belarus. The authorities must heed their persistent calls for a democratic future and respect for fundamental freedoms and human rights. Violence against peaceful protesters must cease at once. All arbitrarily apprehended persons, including political prisoners and journalists, must be released immediately and unconditionally. All perpetrators of human rights violations must be held to account. The EU continues to call for the swift initiation of a genuine, inclusive national dialogue followed by new credible and transparent elections to end the political crisis, respecting the will of the Belarusian people. The EU has stepped up its support to the people of Belarus and stands ready to support a democratic Belarus with a variety of means, including a comprehensive plan of economic support [4]

We have highlighted four parts. In the first two, from Price's declaration, we can understand two things. First, that quite unfortunately, the words freedom and Democracy have seriously lost any meaningful political understanding. It is of great sadness, but this is the world we live in. These two words have been completely co-opted by the imperialists, and we need to start avoid using them in our propaganda, else, every time we try to usher the words to a western audience they will think we mean the same thing as the fascist imperialist nations of US. The imperialists have managed to win the 'war of the words' on this specific issue, and the anomalies and semi-anomalies attracted to our writings in the west wont give two damns if we dont mention these words again, and the ones from the imperialized nations dont give a damn in general, more than often they associate these words to the neoliberals in power anyway.

Secondly, this among countless others, is a prime example of how the fascists use 'Feminism' for their aims. Anti-Imperialists globally should be more carefull about people speaking in 'feminist' tongue, since this movement too, is not just co-opted, but almost entirely under control of the imperialists. A 'Feminist' person profiting from imperialism (a parasite) wants nothing more than on to elevate themselves on the backs of the imperialized in their parasitic society. They are mortal enemies of our just struggle. The same could be said about many 'Feminist' organizations on the imperialized nations. Many of them - For example in the Philipines - are organizations run and operated by imperialist compradors. In general, 'Feminism' is a word and thus, a movement co-opted completely by imperialism since very long ago. Anti-Imperialist revolutionaries like Lenin understood so, long ago. This is what Lenin thought of Feminism:

The thesis must clearly point out that real freedom for women is possible only through communism. The inseparable connection between the social and human position of the woman, and private property in the means of production, must be strongly brought out. That will draw a clear and ineradicable line of distinction between our policy and feminism. [5]

Lenin here makes it clear: The revolutionary position on Women has nothing to do with 'Feminism', and the revolutionary struggle will not in fact, blur this line at all; quite the opposite, it will draw a 'clear and ineradicable line of distinction' between the revolutionary policy and what people call 'Feminism'. Of course, what we mean here is bourgeoisie liberal feminism, which is what Lenin is speaking about too. It is more about political terminology than anything else. When we, and Lenin, say what we say, we don't mean that the women's struggle is not important. We just see how the 'word' feminism is used, and for what, and thus we draw a line between our policy which we consider 'true feminism' and the 'feminism' we see hegemonic as a movement. We just feel that there is no point fighting over the 'word' like there was no point fighting over the word 'Social Democracy' which meant communism back then. Communism itself needs the equal position of the woman in society, and is useless using the word 'feminism' or struggling to reclaim it anymore, at least in the writer's opinion. After all, women hold up half of the sky, and as Lenin said, communism will truly free the woman.

Now to move on the statements of the Europeans, which are about more Belarus specifically than the general remarks of the Americans.

When the Euro-Fascists speak about 'fundamental freedoms' and 'economic aid', what they mean is that for them, the true 'human rights' and 'fundamental freedoms' are imperialist rights. It is the right of the 'Humans' - read, the Parasites - to exploit, plunder, and pillage the other nations for their own benefit, nations inhabited by Hominidae of various shades. And since the state is nothing more than a engine which allows the class in control of it to rule, and since capitalism can't function properly without the capitalists forcing it on the population and protect the property of the bourgeoisie by any opposition by the proletariat movement, the same is happening in the stage of imperialism; the imperialists cant operate in an efficient manner and drink surplus value from the imperialized if they dont have their puppets in power. Thus, they are promising their puppets and the would-be puppets in Belarus money if they manage to capture power. It is a deal of prostitution; the compradors will pimp out the now prostitute Belarus. This is exactly what Joseb 'the socialist' Borrell has in mind when he speaks about Economic aid.

But lets observe how the compradorists responded to the declarations of their overlords.

Here you can see Ms. Tsikhanouskaya (Truly a development on the social sphere! We will have a woman pimp!) pleading the EU-USA to further attack the Belarusian people.

The United States and the European Union should be braver and stronger. The international response is still too modest. [6]

The Fascists heard the pleading, and started dancing in the rhythm. About 10 days later, on 18 of February, the global fascists hit again against the Belarusian people with a fresh round of sanction against Belarusian officials. What needs to be particularly noted is the "care" the imperialists give to the 'workers'.

The United States remains alarmed by the Lukashenka regime's continuing violent crackdown on peaceful protesters, pro-democracy activists, and journalists. The February 16 raids on human rights organization Vyasna, the Belarusian Association of Journalists, and independent trade union workers, as well as the February 18 sentencing of journalists Katsiaryna Andrejeva and Darya Chultsova are particularly troublesome. [7]

One can only be baffled about the fact that the Imperialists care about 'Unionized workers'. Basically, this is how they get the few components of the Left flank of imperialism who are not completely aligned with the line of Washington in the X or Y specific issue. Just mention that some workers are striking, that some workers are arrested e.t.c, and you will have them jump in board immediately. What the imperialists dont want to tell you thow, is the fact that the Trade unions of Belarus are overwhelmingly in support of the government. Most western 'Leftists' have no clue about the struggle being waged in the trade unions. In their mind, Worker Strike = Good. Trade union strike = even better. But this is far from the truth. In the world, there are two Trade union internationals, one is controlled by imperialism, the other is controlled by anti-imperialists and has a communist character. We speak about International Trade Union Confederation (ITUC) and the World Federation of Trade Unions (WFTU). ITUC is controlled by the imperialist/fascists, and WFTU is controlled by global revolutionary proletariat movement. And just by this, we can guess what the imperialists mean when they speak about 'independent' Trade unions. What were the existing trade unions before the start of the unrest in Belarus one will ask? There were two main Trade union confederations. The first, the WFTU affiliated, is the Federation of Trade Unions of Belarus (FTB), which has organized about 4 million workers within its ranks. The second, the Belarusian Congress of Democratic Trade unions (BKDP), which is affiliated with ITUC has about 9,000 members. [8] The number of the currently employed workers in Belarus is about 4,300,000 people. [9] This means, that about 93% of the Belarusian proletariat or other workers and employed people, are members of the Anti-Imperialist communist oriented WFTU affiliated FTB, which also is currently in support of the government and allied to it. The number of imperialist affiliated workers is a pitiful 0.002% of the proletariat or wage earners in general in Belarus. This is what the imperialists don't want to mention. All imperialist papers and declarations mention the 9,000 workers who conduct a strike against the government in the hopes that they will elevate to become a compradorist labour bureaucracy, but they don't mention at all the 4,000,000 workers who support the government, who oppose imperialism. And is not only that. The imperialists have recently trying to create new 'Independent' trade unions, in hopes to draw some unsuspecting workers from FTB, who would never otherwise join the imperialist controlled BKDP. And a person with his senses intact, can fully understand why the government chases down these 'freedom fighters' who try to organize these 'independent' trade unions. It could be said that the government is too soft. They should outright ban every other imperialist affiliated Trade union like BKDP. Everyone who calls themselves a 'Communists' and yet support these imperialist-controlled strikes against the government, is nothing more than a stooge for imperialist domination. But we had enough with the declarations of the imperialists on the woman question, on trade unions e.t.c.

Before we finish this review, we want to just mention one more recent declaration of Tikhanovskaya's pleading for the western imperialists in a more active way. The imperialists have so far: Sanctioned, propagated against, funded their lackey's (the people Tikhanovskaya represents) in the country with money and perhaps arms, and thus, what else is Tikhanovskaya asking? She asks for an armed intervention, this is what she asks.

It is up to every country to live their values of democracy. Are they just words for the country or they want to make these words...into action...It is a challenge for all democratic countries just to prove that human rights is not just words for them [10]

Anyone can understand what she means clearly.

Some short conclusions: Back in November 3, exactly one day before the US presidential elections, we warned our readers that in case Biden wins, it would be worse for the global, imperialized proletariat. [11] And our words are being proven true right now in front of everyone who ever doubted us. Trump limited some aid to global fascist and imperialist groups. Biden not only does not cutts any aid, but he gives further. The first strike of Trump's administration was in Yemen's Yakla against some Al-Qaeda fighters. It was an imperialist strike, but the Trumpist government did not dare to attack a strong anti-imperialist force, or a force openly backed by a state, UN member actor. The first strike of Biden's administration was against the heroic lions of Hezbollah in Syria.

Trump's first strike was aimed at a dying militant group which does not serve in a clear camp (imperialist or anti-imperialist), while Biden's first strike was aimed at perhaps the strongest non-state anti-imperialist militia in the world.

The biggest target of Trump's administration was during the last year when they murdered Haj Qassem. What will Biden's administration do in their last year if they did what they did in the first year? They will drone strike Lukashenka, Bashar or they would even invade Venezuela? What can one do?

There is only one thing to do: Do everything possible to destroy USA, to wipe it off the map. The people of the world arent in war with just the American government, but with their whole population who actively back this imperialist government as long as it keeps feeding them.

And supporting at all costs possible countries like Belarus, Russia, Iran, China, DPRK, e.t.c is not a choice; it is a duty. A duty for everyone calling themselves anti-imperialist.

These countries are the only bastion of hope against the imperialist beasts who want to put chains on us forever, who want to make our men their cossacks and our women their whores. Any self-proclaimed anti-imperialist who does not fulfil this duty, works for our enslavement, directly or indirectly, and they should consider what happens when the enslaved rise up and achieve victory against their slave masters. If the so called 'anti-imperialists' who dont fulfill this duty want to protect their neck when the world rises up, they need to seriously reconsider their lines, and if they are honest about their anti-imperialist beliefs, they will change their lines. If they aren't? Well then, 'ὶδὼν δὲ ὁ Πιλάτος ὅτι οὐδὲν ὠφελεῖ ἀλλὰ μᾶλλον θόρυβος γίνεται, λαβὼν ὕδωρ ἀπενίψατο τὰς χεῖρας ἀπέναντι τοῦ ὄχλου, λέγων, Ἀθῶός εἰμι ἀπὸ τοῦ αἵματος τούτου· ὑμεῖς ὁψεσθε', and who understood understood.
